You have the right to vote!

If you are a US citizen, live in Indiana, are 18 years old, and have registered to vote.

You have the right to vote if you have been convicted of a crime but are no longer in prison.

if the candidate filed to be a write-in by the deadline.

You have the right to vote if you are confined due to illness or disability. Vote absentee at your place of confinement in front of a traveling absentee voting board.

You have the right to leave some choices blank on your ballot. The choices you do mark will still count.

You have the right to a polling place that is accessible to a person with disabilities.

You have the right to get a “provisional ballot” as long as your name is on the poll list if you are told you are not eligible, you don’t have the required ID, or the poll hours are extended due to a court order.

You have the right to ask for help voting if you have a disability or are unable to read or write in English and you ask before entering the voting booth. You can choose an election staff member, a friend, or a family member. However, your boss or a union officer cannot help you vote. The helper must sign an Affidavit of Voter Assistance at the Polls before entering the voting booth with you.

You have the right to vote if your name does not appear on the poll list but you were previously registered to vote in the precinct while living at the same address.

You have the right to vote if you have begun voting or are in line waiting at 6 pm as determined by a precinct election official.

You have the right to vote if your name does not appear on the poll list but you have a receipt from a voter registration agency showing you applied to register before the registration deadline.

You have the right to get a new ballot if you make a mistake as long as you have not submitted the ballot yet.

You have the right to vote if your name does not appear on the poll list because of an error by the county. The county must issue a Certificate of Error before you can vote.

You have the right to vote for the person you want. You can write in someone’s name if they are not on the ballot. However, the vote will only count

You have the right to file a complaint if you think your voting rights have been denied.

(Indiana Voter Bill of Rights)

What if I changed my name?

You have the right to vote if your name on the poll list has changed (for example, due to marriage, divorce, or adoption). Sign the poll book, or an affidavit if it's an electronic poll book, with your new name.

What if I moved?

You have the right to vote if your address on the poll list does not match your current address if you have moved within the same precinct. Sign the poll book, or an affidavit if it's an electronic poll book, with your new address.

You have the right to vote if your address on the poll list does not match your current address if you have moved to a different precinct that is still in the same county and congressional district.

You have the right to vote if your address on the poll list does not match your current address if you have moved to another precinct in Indiana within the last 30 days prior to Election Day. You can vote in person at the old precinct this one last time by signing an affidavit.

You have the right to vote if your address on the poll list does not match your current address if you have moved outside the state of Indiana less than 30 days before a presidential election. You can vote in person at the old precinct this one last time by signing an affidavit, but only to vote for president and vice president.

UNITED STATES REPRESENTATIVE DISTRICT 5

Victoria Spartz – Republican

I am running for Congress because I feel called to protect the American Dream and give back to the country that has given me so much. Only in America could an immigrant, and a woman, start out as a bank teller and become a CPA, audit Fortune 500 companies, launch farming and commercial real estate businesses, become a State Senator, and raise a family. We need more people in office with business experience who understand budgets, and truly appreciate the gift we've been given as Americans. I will work to rebuild our economy, ensure every family has affordable health care, every child gets a good education and we hand down a better, stronger America to future generations.

Christina Hale – Democrat

We've got real problems here in Indiana, and families are facing unprecedented challenges. It's time to set differences aside in Congress and focus on results, not rhetoric. In Washington, I will work with everyone and anyone to get good things done for Americans.

Life as a full-time worker, student, and single mom taught me how important it is to support people trying to build a productive life. Yet in my community, it was clear that families needed an ally in the State House to do just that. Inspired to help, I ran against a six-term incumbent who happened to be the original co-author of Right-to-Work legislation in Indiana. It took a significant investment of sweat equity, but I was elected to the Indiana General Assembly in 2012. There, I quickly earned a reputation as a doer focused on practical issues. Although I served in a Republican-controlled super minority for two terms, I bridged political divides to pass important legislation supporting women, families, and small businesses. Every single bill I passed -- more than 60 in total -- had support from both Democrats and Republicans. As a Cuban-American, I was one of the only Latinx members of the Indiana legislature to ever serve, giving Hoosiers a new voice in the State House. My most recent professional position was executive director of Youth and Service Leadership Programs at Kiwanis International, where I led programs locally and globally to improve the lives of children by expanding access to health care, education, and leadership opportunities.

In Congress, I'll do what I've done my entire career: work hard with anyone and everyone to do what's best for children and families.

Kenneth Tucker – Libertarian

My name is Ken Tucker.

I want to earn your vote, not buy it.

I'm the Libertarian Candidate for Indiana's 5th Congressional District. If elected I promise to fight every day for equality, education, and our environment. I'm fiscally conservative and socially liberal.

I don't want to take anything from you. I want to make this world a better place for future generations.

If you are still reading this and you'd like to know more about me and my campaign please visit my website at tuckerforindiana.com but in short:

I want to create new markets here in Indiana and throughout America and utilize taxes collected to help bridge the education gap, fix our failing infrastructure, fund social security, protect US, and our environment with a pragmatic approach to rejuvenate our agricultural and industrial sectors, provide adequate, accessible, and affordable health care to all. All in hopes to propel America into the next 250 years of innovation.

Thank you for your time.

STATE SENATOR DISTRICT 20

Scott A. Baldwin – Republican

Statement not provided by candidate.

Ronald (Ronnie) Saunders III – Democrat

As a lifelong public servant, I am committed to Bringing Balance Back to the General Assembly by bringing in the voice of blue collar workers, union members, teachers, and every day, working class Hoosiers. I want all Hoosiers to have the same opportunity by ensuring that our public schools are fully funded and teachers are paid wages that encourage them to stay in Indiana. As a father, I want to protect the future of Indiana by being conscientious about the environment while also supporting our state's infrastructure. As a Christian, I want to make sure that we are taking care of our neighbors by prioritizing mental health care and reducing health care expenses for all Hoosiers. As a progressive, I support legalization of cannabis which would raise revenue for our state, which is important when we are likely faced with significantly reduced revenue in 2021; also releasing people who have been arrested with non-violent cannabis-related offenses, which will have a positive budget impact.

STATE SENATOR DISTRICT 30

John C Ruckelshaus – Republican

Statement not provided by candidate.

Fady Qaddoura – Democrat

Statement not provided by candidate.

STATE REPRESENTATIVE DISTRICT 24

Donna Schaibley – Republican

Donna Schaibley has served the people of District 24 as their State Representative since 2015. Donna is vice chairman of the Courts and Criminal Code Committee, sits on the Insurance and Financial Institutions Committees, and is a member of the Recycling Marketing Development Board.

Donna has a record of accomplishment in her six sessions in the Indiana General Assembly. She has authored and sponsored numerous bills which she successfully helped enact into law, to name just a few:

- Providing health care cost transparency by requiring health care providers to inform patients about the actual costs of their health care services prior to treatment, and establishing the framework of an All Payer Claims Database which will allow patients to comparison shop (on the basis of price and quality) for their healthcare services on-line
- Protecting victims of sexual assault by enacting a sexual assault victim bill of rights, as well as creating new procedural protections for children who are the victims of sexual assault
- Helping our schoolchildren by providing access to additional mental health services in our schools with parental consent
- Protecting our children by giving our schools information that enables them to identify child predators

Donna routinely meets with constituents, community groups, school and business leaders, in her efforts to be informed about the needs and concerns of the people of District 24. Based upon that input, she pledges to continue her work on many issues, including the following priority areas:

- Helping Hoosiers who have been hurt by the pandemic, helping people safely get back to work, helping our children safely get back to school, and getting the economy back to normal
- Further increasing health care cost transparency to enable Hoosiers to compare health care prices, and other initiatives to improve the health care system
- Continuing to work for the rights of victims of domestic violence and human trafficking
- Improving school funding

Naomi S. Bechtold - Democrat

A New Voice, A New Vision for District 24

One-party rule at our state capitol has failed Hoosier families. I will bring an independent, practical voice to government. I will advocate for:

- Competitive pay for public school teachers and safety for our children
- Better, less expensive healthcare options
- Fair and secure elections
- The highest standards for our clean air and water

I am running to be that voice and bring that vision to our Statehouse.

I am a local community leader and professional educator with Purdue Extension. I have a BA in public policy from Duke University, an MBA from Lehigh University and am an AFC®. My husband and I have lived in Hamilton County since 2008. We have two children who graduated from IU and Purdue.

I am endorsed by:

Indiana State Teachers Association

The UAW
Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers
25 Women for 2020
Better Indiana
Indiana State AFL-CIO
Moms Demand Action Gun Sense Candidate
Northwest Indiana Gay Straight Coalition

STATE REPRESENTATIVE DISTRICT 29

Chuck Goodrich – Republican

As Indiana works to get back on track, I will continue to work for you and your family. Nothing is more important to me than making sure our community and state is the best place to live, work and raise a family.

Mike Vick – Democrat

I started this race because regular people in my district don't have a voice or a vote at the statehouse. Hamilton County remains the most expensive place to live in the state, which puts it out of reach for many working class folks. It also squeezes the middle class to the point where they're squeezed right out of the middle class.

I will go to the statehouse to fight for regular folks by fighting for a livable minimum wage tied to inflation. I will fight to shift the tax burden onto people and corporations who can actually afford to pay. I will fight to repeal our right to work (for less), anti-union law and will fight for workplace democracy, so people have a voice and a vote regarding what happens with the profits they help generate.

Electing me isn't the end of the journey. It's the beginning of our journey together as a movement. It's not about me. It's about us. When people stand up and make their voices heard, we can accomplish anything together.

STATE REPRESENTATIVE DISTRICT 32

Anthony J. (Tony) Cook – Republican

Following 41 years as teacher/coach, principal, and superintendent of schools, Representative Cook retired from the superintendency and entered the House in 2014 and has been a successful and highly productive legislator for the past 3 terms. He has authored, co-authored, or been the lead sponsor for Senate bills, of which over 100 of these bills were enacted into law. He has carried numerous priority bills in the House for the Republican caucus leadership and the governor in education, workforce development, veterans' benefits, school safety, and mental health. While serving these past three terms, Rep. Cook has received two legislator of the year awards, from the Association of Architects and from the Humane Society, and he received the Mitch and Sherry Daniels Community Health Leadership Award for his work as principal during Ryan White's admission to school (first AIDS student in the U.S. to attend public schools). Rep. Cook will continue to work for those areas listed above!

Amie Neiling – Democrat

Statement not provided by candidate.

STATE REPRESENTATIVE DISTRICT 37

Todd Huston – Republican

Todd Huston grew up in Fishers, and he and his wife Denise (also a Fishers native) raised their family here. Todd and Denise's kids, Elizabeth (20) and Jake (18), are both graduates of HSE and now attend Indiana University.

Todd Huston was first elected to serve the constituents of House District 37 in 2012. Currently, Huston is Speaker of the House and a member of the House Ways and Means Committee. As state representative, he has delivered results for Fishers by working to secure $37 million more for HSE schools since 2012. Huston also led the charge to obtain funding for the new 106th Street interchange and the State Road 37 project.

Huston is proud to be endorsed by the Indiana Chamber of Commerce, Indiana Farm Bureau, Indiana Manufacturers Association, Indiana State Police Alliance, Indianapolis Chamber of Commerce, National Federation of Independent Business, and Professional Firefighters Union of Indiana PAC.

Aimee Rivera Cole – Democrat

I'm running to make families like yours and mine a priority in the Statehouse again. Working as an attorney for almost twenty years, I have seen firsthand how our state's laws directly impact people's daily lives and it is clear that it is time for a change. Hoosiers deserve leadership that will consider the full impact of their decisions and will focus on solving problems. I am fighting for an Indiana where Hoosiers come first. I want our community to be a place where Hoosiers earn the Midwest's highest wages, send their children to top-ranked public schools, and live healthy, fulfilling lives. We have critical issues impacting our state this year — like education and keeping our kids safe in school, ensuring families do not just make ends meet, but thrive, and protecting our environment.

STATE REPRESENTATIVE DISTRICT 39

Jerry Torr – Republican

Statement not provided by candidate.

Ashley Klein - Democrat

I'm committed to fighting for an Indiana that makes the future better for all Hoosiers. We are living through a challenging time - a public health crisis that triggered a severe economic downturn and a reckoning with racial injustice in our country - as your representative, I will protect working families, stand up for equality, increase access to medical care and promote a fair economic recovery. I will work across the Statehouse to legislation that strengthens our communities and promotes the common good.

HAMILTON COUNTY COMMISSIONER DISTRICT 2

Steve C. Dillinger - Republican

Statement not provided by candidate.

HAMILTON COUNTY COMMISSIONER DISTRICT 3

Mark Heirbrandt – Republican

Serving the community as a public official was never one of Mark Heirbrandt's career goals. In 2012, Mark wanted more clarity on initiatives that were happening in Westfield and throughout the County. This led Mark on an inquiring journey to get answers that not only affected him, but the entire community. Just like anything else in life, Mark has always been motivated by digging deep into complex problems to find simple, innovative and cost-effective solutions.

Several residents and community leaders encouraged Mark to run for Hamilton County Commissioner after Doug Carter stepped down to become Indiana State Police Superintendent.

Mark's desire to impact the community on a local level has always been strong. Making a difference in the lives of the people that he encountered every day, soon became his top priority. Mark won a highly contested caucus as Hamilton County Commissioner in early 2013 and won re-election campaign in 2016.

Since being elected as Hamilton County Commissioner, Mark has accomplished numerous projects including:

- State Road 37 Renovations
- Energy saving improvements
- Solar energy project at the Hamilton County Correctional Campus
- Lowe's Way (Carmel & Westfield)
- 276th Street renovation (Atlanta) spurring economic development expansion

Dan Montgomery – Democrat

Dan Montgomery, along with his wife Jane, have resided in Hamilton County for over 34 years. Their children graduated from Carmel schools and the couple have made Westfield their home since 2005.

A native Hoosier, Dan has a Mechanical Engineering degree from Rose-Hulman Institute of Technology and a professional engineering license.

As an entrepreneur, businessman and job creator Dan is well qualified to serve as a county commissioner. He has a diverse background in engineering, high-tech and business management. His experience spans several companies and industries including agricultural equipment, automotive, consulting engineering, law enforcement and video production.

He has been president of Imagine Products since 1991 creating video, film and TV software products for media professionals worldwide. The company also made law enforcement surveillance video enhancement tools for county, state and national departments.

Mr. Montgomery has served on numerous professional, non-profit and religious boards and advisory committees for universities, local and state government, and national associations. He has volunteered and helped lead youth programs at Carmel High School and Lutheran churches.

As president of Pilgrim Lutheran church Dan negotiated the sale of property to INDOT and from the proceeds oversaw the building of a new $7M facility. From this project he gained experience working closely with architects and construction companies, city and county zoning.

Along with the influx of population in Hamilton county in recent years comes the challenges of upgrading infrastructure and expanding services for the community.

Dan Montgomery is uniquely qualified to bring fresh ideas and insight to the role of commissioner.

HAMILTON COUNTY COUNCIL AT-LARGE (vote for three)

Brandon (Brad) Beaver – Republican

Sue Maki – Republican

Sue Maki, a 32 year Hamilton County resident, is running for Hamilton County Council at-large. Maki currently serves as Manager of Environmental Initiatives and Education for Carmel Utilities.

In Maki's current role at Carmel Utilities, her focus is on research, program implementation, facilitating efficient communication and customer education, listening to residents and in turn, leading the environmental initiatives in Carmel. Maki played an integral role in Carmel achieving the 2016 EPA WaterSense Excellence Award and the 2014 Governor's Award for Environmental Excellence for Recycling. Recently she has been named one of Indiana's 30 Recycling Rock Stars by the Indiana Recycling Coalition in honor of the organizations 30th anniversary.

Maki's leadership within Hamilton County and community service dedication speak for itself. Maki serves as President of the Hamilton County Solid Waste Board and has previously served as President of the Hamilton County Tourism Commission, President of The Rotary Club of Carmel and President of the Carmel Middle School PTO.

Making an impact across all towns and cities in Hamilton County, Maki served as Executive Director of the Hamilton County Leadership Academy from 2000 - 2003. She is also a 1999 graduate. Maki spent 18 years in the insurance industry, with the majority of those years being in a leadership role. She brings a high level of both public and private sector professional experience to her candidacy

Maki holds a Master of Business Administration degree from Anderson University and a Bachelor's degree in Political Science from Baldwin-Wallace University Berea, Ohio. Sue has also earned a variety of professional designations such as Chartered Property Casualty Underwriter (CPCU) Chartered Life Underwriter (CLU) and Leadership in Energy and Environmental Design Accredited Professional (LEED AP).

Gardiner P. Bink III – Democrat

Gardiner Bink is running to represent you on the Hamilton County Council, At Large. Gardiner is excited to use his experience to improve the Hamilton County Council. He is passionate about our community and wants to do his part to keep Hamilton County a great, family friendly community for everyone. He plans to do this by running our council with fiscal responsibility to continue fostering growth in our community. The areas that are the most important to Gardiner include Fiscal Responsibility, Support for our First Responders and Infrastructure Investment. Most importantly, Gardiner promises to work tirelessly to represent you.

The county government has been run by one party for too long. Everyone will get much better results with multiple parties represented pushing each other to greater perspectives. Gardiner will bring a different perspective to the council, bring greater transparency and insight into the operations and agreements in the council.

VOTER GUIDE: General Election 2020

Hamilton County Indiana

Gardiner lives in Westfield with his wife, Tara, and their 2-year-old son, Gardiner IV ("Four"). He grew up in Lancaster County, Pennsylvania and graduated from Xavier University in 2013. He has a BSBA, having dual majored in Finance and Entrepreneurial Studies and the CORE: Credentials of Readiness certificate from Harvard Business School Online. After graduation, Gardiner and Tara moved to Carmel in order to be closer to her family. He has spent time in a variety of different business roles including time as a business consultant.

Victor Schleich – Democrat

Hamilton County can do better. We can be better for our neighbors. Say no to economic malpractice and political cowardice in this era of crisis. Help protect our individual rights over the interests of establishment corporations and politics.

Power to the People. The average citizens of Hamilton County need a voice in the budgetary decisions of Hamilton County. A vote for Schleich is a vote for a people centered budgetary approach, not a corporate one.

Vote for the Experienced Candidate

Jake Madore – Democrat

The Treasurer's Office isn't about politics. It's about faithfully investing and lawfully managing taxpayer dollars.

That is my mission. To ensure the people of Hamilton County have a fair and competent Treasurer.

While that may seem like a given, as we have seen over the last few years, those basic goals are missed when we vote for the wrong candidates. But, we can change that this fall.

Please join me this fall and vote for the best candidate. Let's make Hamilton County even better and restore the character and leadership of this office.

I promise to deliver on these items because I have the right background and experience for this role.

I will bring my private sector tax experience and background in tax law to this office to improve our return on investment and to make sure we are following the law again rather than dealing with lawsuits and terminations over misdeeds.

HAMILTON COUNTY SURVEYOR

Kenton C. Ward – Republican

Statement not provided by candidate.

Brad Beer – Democrat

Global Warming is an existential threat that requires immediate action. As Surveyor I will be best positioned to prepare Hamilton Country for our future.
