VOTER ID REQUIREMENTS
Ohio accepts a wide variety of documents for voter ID purposes:

- A driver’s license or state ID card with your name and photo, issued by the Ohio Bureau of Motor Vehicles. The card must be current (not expired), but it can have an old address. An expired Ohio Driver’s License, State ID Card, or Interim Documentation with your former address is an ACCEPTABLE form of ID if your current address is in the pollbook.
- A U.S. Military ID with your name and photo (address not required).
- A government ID with your name, current address, and photo. Note that neither a student ID nor a passport is accepted.
- An original or copy of one of the following:
  1. current document that shows your name and current address
  2. utility bill (including cell phone bill)
  3. Bank statement, paystub, government check, or other government document. The document must have a date within one year of Election Day to be accepted as current.

If you do not have any of the above, you may use the last 4 digits of your Social Security number. You will have to vote a provisional ballot, but it will be counted so long as the number matches your voter registration. Be sure to complete all fields on the provisional ballot form.

What actions would you take to balance public health and economic recovery in the US, both in light of COVID-19 and for the long term? It’s a false choice to think we have to choose between our public health and economy; they’re linked. On Day One, I’ll implement the COVID strategy I’ve laid out since March – surging testing and protective gear; distributing vaccines safely and free of politics; helping schools and small businesses cover costs; and getting state and local governments resources to keep educators, cops, and firefighters on the job. I’ll respect science and tell the truth, period. And I’ll build our economy back better, creating millions of good-paying jobs. I’ll revitalize manufacturing, build a clean energy economy, and boost caregiving – easing the squeeze on working families, providing paid leave, and getting caregivers the respect and pay they deserve.

What is the most important issue facing our country and how do you plan to address it during your first 100 days in office? Pandemic. Recession. Racial injustice. Climate change. We’re facing historic crises; we have to tackle them all at once. Character and experience count. I’ll listen to scientists, tell the truth, and make sure we’re never so unprepared for a pandemic again. I’ll expand the Affordable Care Act, lowering costs and making health care a right for all. I’ll build our economy back better, and make racial equity central to our recovery. In these crises, we have an enormous opportunity, if we come together. As President, I’ll draw on the best of us, not the worst.

Given our experience with Covid-19, what policies would you support in facing the public health, economic, and equity challenges of the COVID-19 pandemic? I will protect the citizen’s rights from infringements based on medical directives from individuals and organizations who have proven themselves to be contradictory and untrustworthy. I will protect citizen’s rights to opt out of vaccination, quarantine, tracking, and lockdown programs. I will support the policy that no citizen can be forced to accept any food, drug, or medical treatment against their objection. I support private and government led investigations into the actual cause, symptoms, transmission methods, preventative measures, and cures for the current coronavirus and future pop-up diseases. I support an investigation into the CDC, WHO, government officials, and global business leaders that are participating in the lockdown pandemic response in an effort to reset our societies and trap us into a one world government system.

With all of the twists and turns of this election cycle, there is one thing that remains true, you can count on the League of Women Voters to provide you with accurate, unbiased, nonpartisan information about ballot issues, candidate information, and the election process. Given our experience with Covid-19, what precautions would you put in place to allow for safe, secure elections whereby voters are not choosing between their health and their right to vote, especially in November? Include how you would fund any necessary precautions and changes.

The Board of Elections (for early in-person voting) and each election location (for traditional in-person Election Day voting) should utilize Social Distancing for line formation (including extending outdoors if necessary), require mask wearing, and sanitize every voting machine between uses.

What policies would you support in facing the public health, economic, and equity challenges of the COVID-19 pandemic?

I support transparent reporting of the data associated with Covid-19 infection numbers, hospitalizations, and deaths. While Covid-19 is a real and serious health issue, it clearly has been politicized by many different actors with their own agendas. I do believe that the economic effect of the Covid-19 pandemic has been largely marginalized and de-emphasized by our government actors and media. While ensuring safe precautions, the need to open our industry and economy back up is essential. We cannot allow the “cure to be worse than the disease.” Individual workers and employers alike are suffering crippling economic losses - many of whom may not be able to ever recover. We need to allow businesses to open back up in full capacity should they so desire and allow consumers to make a personal choice for themselves about whether they feel comfortable to engage in in-person commercial activities.

I support the voting related provisions and funding included in the Heroes Act passed by the U.S. House several months ago, and those included in my bill with Rep. Jim Clyburn introduced in the House in June. They include, for example: 1. Increase early in-person voting days and hours 2. Increase the use of drop boxes 3. Provide prepaid postage for ballot requests and ballots 4. Require universal no-excuse vote-by-mail 5. Require language and disability accessibility for all polling places 6. Eliminate need for witnesses and notification of ballots and ballot requests 7. Provide resources to recruit and train poll workers 8. Ensure USPS has adequate personnel and equipment to ensure timely processing of all mail-in ballots 9. Provide state/local governments with additional funding to ensure polling places, workers and voters are safe, e.g., $3.6 billion 10. Increase USPS funding to cover need for additional personnel, overtime, functioning equipment, etc., e.g., $25 billion

What policies would you support in facing the public health, economic, and equity challenges of the COVID-19 pandemic?

I support the following, among others: 1. Expand paid leave to ensure workers and families are safe and healthy 2. Expand testing, tracing and treating capacity of public health departments 3. Require federal reporting of demographic information on infections and deaths 4. Expand the FCC’s Lifeline program subsidizing monthly broadband and telephone service to low-income households for student access to virtual learning and family access to telehealth, etc. 5. Support the use of telehealth to improve access to healthcare 6. Provide health insurance premium assistance to those unemployed or furloughed during/shortly after the pandemic 7. Provide funding to rebuild America’s infrastructure to address economic and climate challenges, and long-standing disparities in job and business opportunities, and community development 8. Require the Dept. of Labor to issue occupational safety and health standard to protect employees from COVID-19

Given our experience with Covid-19, what precautions would you put in place to allow for safe, secure elections whereby voters are not choosing between their health and their right to vote, especially in November? Include how you would fund any necessary precautions and changes.

Here in Ohio, our election professionals have worked hard to ensure you can safely cast your ballot this November, whether you choose to do so by mail or in person. Voters who don’t want to risk their health amid the ongoing pandemic by voting in person still have the right to participate in our nation’s democratic process and must have the option to do so. To ensure the Postal Service has the resources they need to deliver those ballots, I recently voted with my colleagues across the aisle to provide the Postal Service with $25 billion in additional funding. Ohioans who plan to cast their ballot by mail should have full confidence that their vote will be counted. Similarly, voters who wish to cast their ballot in person must be able to do so safely. Our board of elections are working to establish the necessary precautions to ensure the safety of those who vote in-person as well as those working the polls. Last month, I was proud to work with a Lake County manufacturer, RB Sigma, and the Secretary of State’s office to create a partnership that will provide nearly half a million surgical masks for poll workers and voters in all 88 counties on election day. RB Sigma was able to retrofit their machinery to produce PPE thanks to a $500,000 grant funded by the CARES Act. I’m proud to support manufacturers like RB Sigma that have worked around the clock to produce and deliver essential PPE across Ohio, ensuring that voters who choose to vote on election day are safe.

Regardless of where you land on the political spectrum, I think everyone can agree that the American people pay the price when partisanship prevents Congress from addressing the challenges facing our nation. That’s why I’m proud to have been recognized as one of the most bipartisan members of Congress by the Lugar Center and Georgetown University. While the majority of members ranked below the historical average, I earned a spot in the top 10% in their annual rankings of the most bipartisan members of Congress, which are based on the frequency with which members work with members of the other party on their legislation. I was also honored to receive the U.S. Chamber of Commerce’s first-ever Jefferson-Hamilton Award for Bipartisanship. As a member of the House Problem Solvers Caucus, I consistently work across the aisle to find common ground on issues facing the American people. This year alone, I’ve worked alongside my Democratic colleagues to combat the skyrocketing opioid overdoses amidst the pandemic, ensure our hospitals have sufficient resources and PPE, address military suicide rates, reduce our nation-wide sexual assault kit backlog, and protect student loan forgiveness for public servants like nurses, police officers, social workers and firefighters.

Every time I go to Washington, I go ready to leave the toxic red team versus blue team mentality at the door and work together with my colleagues across the aisle to create a better future for our country.

The CDC spells out clear recommendations for holding safer elections in light of the COVID-19 crisis. The risk for infection is highest when circumstances force larger crowds to congregate indoors for longer wait times. Lower risk scenarios include having a wide variety of voting options, longer voting periods (more days and/or more hours), and other means of reducing the number of voters congregating indoors. Polling locations should be set up to maximize adherence to CDC recommendations, including mask use, social distancing, and hygiene. Further, we should invest alternatives to in-person voting, including extended absentee voting and the placement of ballot deposit boxes, placed in an equitable manner based on population and travel time from population centers. The CARES (Coronavirus Aid, Relief, and Economic Security Act) Act combined with 2002's HAVA (Help America Vote Act) provide over $825M in available funding; however, most estimates place the cost of a safe, secure election closer to $2B and the shortfall ought to be covered by Congress via a further stimulus package. Additionally, the Postal Service must be fully funded as part of our election infrastructure. The right to vote is one of Americans’ most basic Constitutional rights and Congress has a sworn obligation to ensure all citizens have the ability to safely cast their ballots.

Describe what you have done to work across political differences to solve problems and foster trust with the voters you represent.

As a Navy combat veteran, I have always had a country-first, mission-oriented focus. I believe in service—service to country, and service to constituents. In Congress, I will continue the ethic of service that I have demonstrated throughout my career to serve my country and my District. It is no coincidence that division has peaked in our government as the number of veterans in Congress has reached historic lows. According to The Lugar Center’s Bipartisan index, veterans, especially younger ones, score better than other members of Congress on their willingness to work across the aisle. The incumbent in this office has demonstrated his unwillingness to work across the aisle with his strikingly partisan voting record (exceptional even in our currently divided era) and voting with the current administration over 95% of the time. I will always work in service of my Country and my constituents across political differences to solve problems and foster trust with the voters I represent.

The Federal government should be willing to fund safe and secure elections amidst the pandemic, possibly with a very minor tax increase on the top earners in this country. Repealing Trump’s tax cut for the wealthiest people in the nation would easily fund this (as well as many other social projects that would be a huge boon for the people). An election during a pandemic should encourage vote-by-mail above all else, facilitated with postage-paid ballot requests, paid postage for returning the ballot, and multiple ballot drop boxes across every state to minimize the effort needed on the part of the voter to cast their ballot. In-person voting should be done in large, well-ventilated buildings where dividers separate voters from their poll workers. Voting booths would also need the space necessary to be 6 feet apart from one another at all times, with masks required for all voters (and provided for free) and PPE provided for poll workers.

Describe what you have done to work across political differences to solve problems and foster trust with the voters you represent.

Given I am not currently in a legislative office, this is a difficult question to answer. But I do have some experience trying to bridge gaps - in the 2018 election, I was elected to be on the Cuyahoga County Democratic Party Central Committee, representing Westlake’s ward 3-D. In that role, I have worked with the Cuyahoga County Progressive Caucus and the CCDP to help try to bridge the gap between the party leaders and the changes that my fellow activists within the community would like to see in the county party structure. Beyond that, I am seeking this office in order to effect positive change for the people of the 16th District. Those efforts would know no party lines. I will work with anyone, regardless of affiliation, who has a serious and honest intent to solve the problems facing our district and our country, whether it’s government corruption, the cost/access of healthcare, the climate crisis, or any of the many other issues affecting our district. In what ways would you change our election system so that we are better prepared to handle crises that could impair the right to vote?

Ohio’s election system offers opportunities to vote for 28 days prior to election day and of course on election day. A voter can vote by mail, in person at their local board of elections as well as in person at their local polling spot. I support these efforts.

The two changes I’d recommend are electronic registration and, when technology allows, electronic voting.

What changes in tax, formula funding, and voucher policies would you advocate to reduce reliance on local property taxes to fund public education as required by the “DeRolph” school-funding decision?

Specifically, I will work to pass the fair funding amendment that guarantees every public school receives as a minimum from the State, the same amount private and parochial schools receive in auxiliary funding. I support most vouchers be income-based and paid for by the State.

In what ways would you change our election system so we are better prepared to handle crises that could impair the right to vote?

There are simple fixes that can be made to the 2020 General Election process to allow more eligible voters to participate safely. I recommend that Secretary of State LaRose create and run an online mail-in ballot request system to simplify the process. I advocate that return postage on paper request forms and absentee ballots be paid, and Secretary of State LaRose has been granted the authority to do this now. I support placing multiple secure drop boxes for mail-in ballots, rather than just one located at the county Board of Elections. There is nothing in the ballot return procedure that requires only one ballot drop box per county. I suggest the state implement a voter education campaign targeted at historically marginalized groups to help Ohioans navigate the mail-in voting process. And finally, I recommend the use of Bureau of Motor Vehicles data to administratively implement an automatic voter registration process. Ohio already uses this data to verify voters.

What changes in tax, formula funding, and voucher policies would you advocate to reduce reliance on local property taxes to fund public education as required by the “DeRolph” school-funding decision?

We need to ensure that every child has the opportunity to receive a quality K-12 education no matter their zip code, socioeconomic status, or race. A state’s tax code should reflect its priorities. Continuing to create tax loopholes and breaks for certain groups leaves fewer resources to fund the programs that matter most, landing Ohio in the bottom half of states in education. In 2019, the district 24 state senator used his leadership position to strip millions of dollars from Orange City Schools to benefit a small group of property owners, not solving the problem for the rest of Ohioans. Addressing the over-reliance on property taxes one community at a time is not how we fix public school funding. House Bill (HB) 305 seeks to overhaul the funding formula with input from many groups. I support the efforts to refine HB305 to end the unconstitutional funding of K-12 schools. The current system pits public schools against private schools for funding and with unequal accountability.

In what ways would you change our election system so we are better prepared to handle crises that could impair the right to vote?
We need to provide flexibility, guidance, and emergency funding to local boards of elections for any type of crisis during election season. In order to address these issues, I am a co-sponsor of House Bill 667 that seeks to address voting during the pandemic including: Counting ballots postmarked on Election Day, offering multiple early voting locations. Offering multiple secure drop-boxes in communities to drop off mail ballots. Implementing comprehensive voter education campaigns. Prepaid return postage for mail-in ballots. Expanding online voter registration. Increasing and funding in-person safety protocols like sanitation and social distancing. Requiring county boards of elections to have emergency and contingency plans for voting. We need a variety of reforms to combat voter suppression and make voting easier, including: Automatic voter registration. Universal vote-by-mail. Make Election Day a national holiday.

What changes in tax, formula funding, and voucher policies would you advocate to reduce reliance on local property taxes to fund public education as required by the “DeRolph” school-funding decision?
We need a fair K-12 funding system that provides equal per-pupil funding for public school students, regardless of local property values, while providing additional funds to account for regional variables like student-teacher ratios, gifted and special needs students, poverty, and other factors. To work toward this goal, I am a co-sponsor of House Bill 305, the bipartisan plan to reform school funding at a more equitable level. When comparing state funding per-pupil, charter schools get over $3,300 more per student compared to public schools. Private schools receiving vouchers get over $2,800 more per student. I oppose any system where charter and private schools receive more state funding than public schools. Also, for-profit education should not receive any public dollars without proper oversight and accountability in order to avoid future corruption schemes, such as the ECOT scandal.

In what ways would you change our election system so we are better prepared to handle crises that could impair the right to vote?
I would implement automatic voter registration and expand access to mail-in voting. Voter registration is incredibly difficult during a crisis like a pandemic when regular modes of outreach and voter education are unavailable. Automatic registration would eliminate these challenges, end excessive voter purges, and move toward modernizing our voting system to make sure anyone who is eligible can vote. Voting information must be clear and accurate. Providing confusing and contradictory information is a form of voter suppression. This is partisan maneuvering and it undermines our democracy. Early voting and mail-in ballots need to be accessible and reliable. Throughout this year’s primary and general election process, Ohioans have been confused and worried over whether their vote will count. We need to make sure absentee ballot applications are sent to every voter, every election, with postage, and make sure that guidelines are in place for future crises.

What changes in tax, formula funding, and voucher policies would you advocate to reduce reliance on local property taxes to fund public education as required by the “DeRolph” school-funding decision?
The state needs to increase its share of public school funding support. Education should be seen as an investment, not an expenditure. The three legs of public support of government operations are property taxes, sales tax and income tax. In the last 20 years the State of Ohio has decreased income taxes and increased sales tax, that trend needs to be reversed. In addition, support of vouchers and charter schools needs to have its own distinctive line item in the state budget, separated from the local district funding formula.

I would change our election system so we are better prepared to handle crises that could impact the right to vote. If there is another crisis that impacts our ability to vote, we need to have a crisis plan in place. This is why I worked on the “Emergency Ballot Bill” to make voting easier during a crisis. If we have a crisis again, I will work to make voting easier. I will work to ensure that Ohioans have access to the ballot, whether that’s in-person voting, voting by mail, or voting online. I will also work to ensure that election officials have the resources they need to run elections during a crisis.

boards of elections to have the flexibility to ensure safe, secure and convenient elections based on the needs of voters within their community and; Creating an innovation fund for local boards of elections to implement voting methods to increase voter participation and increase voter confidence in the process of voting.

What changes in tax, formula funding, and voucher policies would you advocate to reduce reliance on local property taxes to fund public education as required by the “DeRolph” school-funding decision? The changes I would advocate for to reduce the reliance on local property taxes to fund public education are: The tax policy must be based on every individual tax payer and business paying their equitable share to fund public education without any special tax loopholes to reduce tax liability. The funding formula policy must include the allocation of equitable (not equal) resources needed to educate children based on their academic, social and emotional needs and must move from a per pupil basis and; The school voucher policy must be based on the financial need of a family and be awarded to children that have actually attended school in their home district.

In what ways would you change our election system so we are better prepared to handle crises that could impair the right to vote? As a legislator, I have worked to 1) provide online voter registration; 2) expand vote-by-mail opportunities during the pandemic; 3) provide prepaid postage for ballots and applications; 4) provide additional (more than one) early vote locations; and 5) provide additional (more than one) ballot drop-off locations.

In what ways would you change our election system so we are better prepared to handle crises that could impair the right to vote? 1. Deploy additional dropboxes as recommended by local BOE’s 2. Continue advocating for the restoration of USPS sorting machines, mailbox locations, and additional staffing to clear any mail backlogs to ensure an easy mail balloting process. 3. Make it easier to request your ballot by mail if you choose to vote that way (online or telephone request rather than the cumbersome and time consuming mail request process). 4. Pay the return postage on ballot applications and ballots. 5. Allow voters to return mail ballots at their home voting location. 6. Require safety protocols in in-person voting locations (mandatory masks, hand sanitizer, and social distancing). 7. Commit to keeping polls open as long as necessary beyond standard closing times to accommodate any long lines due to reduced capacity.

In what ways would you change our election system so we are better prepared to handle crises that could impair the right to vote? I would work with the Sectary of State’s office and legislature to have additional backup locations and personnel. I would also work to provide better communication to inform voters of changes and more equipment to handle absentee voting.

What changes in tax, formula funding, and voucher policies would you advocate to reduce reliance on local property taxes to fund public education as required by the “DeRolph” school-funding decision? From my experience as a Board of Education Member I saw firsthand the impact the legislature has on local districts. One of the most burdensome is unfunded mandates which I would work to eliminate or reduce.

In what ways would you change our election system so we are better prepared to handle crises that could impair the right to vote? In Ohio, we currently have several options to vote. We have a 28 day early voting period in which we can vote by mail, drop your ballot off at the board of elections or in-person voting. Additionally, we can vote in person on election day. On March 25th, I voted for the Secretary of State to mail out ballot application request forms and for the return postage during the March 17th primary election. Additionally, later this year, I voted for the Secretary of State to mail ballot applications request form to every registered voter in Ohio. Several options have been discussed including providing return postage for the ballot (which I voted for and was offered during this past primary), additional drop off box locations and requesting a ballot via the county board of elections website. These are voter programs that deserve consideration and I anticipate full program presentations from the Ohio Secretary of State in the near future.

What changes in tax, formula funding, and voucher policies would you advocate to reduce reliance on local property taxes to fund public education as required by the “DeRolph” school-funding decision? I have been advocating for a review and change to the current school funding formula. I am a co-sponsor on the most comprehensive school funding bill in years, the Cupp-Patterson Bill. Earlier this year, I hosted a Townhall meeting in Westlake, in which the two sponsors, Representatives Cupp and Patterson, were in attendance. At that event, they outlined their program and answered questions from those in attendance. Additionally, I have signed on to an amendment that is included in the current state operating budget that would guarantee every school district an minimum funding level that is significantly higher than the funding most of our local districts are receiving.

Today, the League stands for the rights of all people to be active participants in their government. We educate voters, empower people to participate in civic life, and advocate for policies that strengthen our democracy.
In what ways would you change our election system so we are better prepared to handle crises that could impair the right to vote? Efficiencies must be created to do away with Ohio’s lengthy, inconvenient and confusing process for voting by mail. Unfortunately, Ohio has a convoluted, multi-step process today that can be a deterrent. Currently, in the first two steps of the process, a voter must obtain or print a copy of an absentee ballot request form and then mail it back to the Board of Elections. The Board of Elections will then send the voter their ballot and the voter must complete it, add proper postage – sometimes requiring multiple stamps - and either drop their completed ballot at the Board of Elections, which is the only location in the county with an official drop box, or mail it back before deadline. Having the ability to request a ballot online, ensuring that postage is pre-paid for absentee ballots and having several secure ballot collection boxes placed throughout the county at locations like libraries and city halls would improve this process dramatically and increase voter participation.

What changes in tax, formula funding, and voucher policies would you advocate to reduce reliance on local property taxes to fund public education as required by the “DeRolph” school-funding decision? Ohio’s school funding formula has been considered unconstitutional since an Ohio Supreme Court ruling in 1996 ordered state government to “enact a constitutional school-funding system.” Our state’s school funding formula still relies mainly on local property taxes, which continues to create an unconstitutional and unacceptable per-student funding gap. The proposed Cupp-Patterson bill is an improvement I’d support, as it attempts to address some of this. But it still allows almost all of the nearly $2,000 gap between the best-funded schools and the lowest-funded schools in the state to persist, which is unacceptable. We must devote more of the state budget toward direct funding of public schools. Every school district should receive adequate and equitable educational resources based on the needs of the student population, the goals set by the state, and the amount of local funding that can be provided to help meet those needs. Ohio’s EdChoice voucher program undermines these goals.

What role can the state board play in helping school districts protect the health and well-being of the community while providing education to our children? Although the state board is not a policy-making body, members of the board can be valuable resources to their constituents. Members have the power to convene within their districts, which means they can bring local stakeholders together to problem solve issues such as COVID-19. Members can also serve their districts by providing credible and timely information to help with decision-making as well as serving as liaisons between their constituents and the state. In concert with the state superintendent of instruction, state board members represent a message to communities and school districts across Ohio through their communications; these messages should be supportive and understanding, and resources referenced (preferably designed by the Department of Education or other educational authority) should be helpful to those making local decisions.

What information should the state board of education collect, analyze, and report so policymakers and residents of Ohio can evaluate how well all schools that receive public funds are serving students and communities? There is a plethora of data available in the current educational climate - too much data, perhaps, as it is easy to get lost in the numbers and forget that we are talking about children and communities. Available data include subjective sources such as teacher-focused surveys generated by the Ohio Department of Education around specific topics and feedback generated through conversations, and more objective data sources such as state testing results, career and college preparedness data, local assessments with state reporting requirements, and other assessment data points. All of these data points are important IN PERSPECTIVE and relative to their communities, in that they are each one snapshot in time and represent more than just what happens in school. The board should also look at demographic data and locally-developed surveys to determine if districts are meeting the needs of their communities and parents, which may not be reflected by test scores.

I have been a judge for over 16 years. I have presided over hundreds of jury trials, both criminal and civil, and scores of bench trials. I have handled death penalty cases. I was selected by the Chief Justice of The Ohio Supreme Court to be one of only eight judges in Ohio to preside over a commercial docket dedicated to the swift and just resolution of business disputes. I have presided over a criminal mental health docket specializing in the issues arising in the adjudication and disposition of cases where a defendant has a serious mental illness with a psychotic feature. I have a reputation for political independence, a necessity for any good judge.

What about your non-judicial legal experience qualifies you to be a judge?
My 17 years private practice experience with people from all walks of life has helped me better understand how the law affects people, in a wide variety of life situations. To be a lawyer is a calling to serve society and to uphold and protect the rule of law. I have worked for clients ranging from economically disadvantaged single mothers to one who was running for president (Jerry Brown in 1992). My private law practice experience includes trial and appellate work for clients in common pleas courts in Franklin, Cuyahoga, Licking, Fairfield, Carroll, Mahoning and Hamilton Counties; in appellate courts in the Tenth, Third, Eighth, Fifths, First, Second and Sixth District Courts of Appeals; the Ohio Supreme Court; United States District Courts (Northern and Southern Districts of Ohio); Sixth Circuit Court of Appeals; and am admitted to practice before the United States Supreme Court. I have represented clients in administrative proceedings before numerous state and local boards and agencies, as a special prosecutor for election fraud and as a hearing officer for the Ohio Department of Natural Resources. In 2011, I drafted a statewide referendum petition for a coalition of voting rights activists, labor organizations, state and local political party organizations and faith-based and other nonprofit organizations who gathered more than 400,000 petition signatures to place voting rights referendum on statewide ballot; in 2012-2013 I developed a multi-state and federal executive agency governance affairs practice focused on matters before the FCC and state public utilities commissions relating to low income telephone government programs. I started my own law firm from the corner of my bedroom when our children were 7, 4 and 2, growing it to 32 people after ten years. Other experience includes... serving as general counsel for a computer firm and a trade association, serving as campaign finance counsel for numerous state and local labor unions, corporations, national and state associations, candidates, caucuses and political action committees on state and federal election law, and representing neighborhood groups and developers on zoning, referendum and initiative election issues. Past experience also includes representing judges and judicial candidates before the Supreme Court concerning compliance with the Code of Judicial Conduct. Held experience in drafting state legislation and administrative rules in areas of election law, local option elections, campaign finance, and ethics laws. Served as administrative partner of law firm.

Why are you running for this particular court seat?
I love the law, I love Ohio and I enjoy helping people. I am privileged, having traveled to every county in this state when I served as Secretary of State, to have worked with Ohio’s 88 county boards of elections as we together served Ohioans. I chose to run for the Ohio Supreme Court for three reasons. First, I want to be a part of a court that ensures that the first decision interpreting the state constitution’s new provisions for fair districts for Congress and the Ohio General Assembly, when challenged—and they will be—is fair and according to state constitutional requirements. As Secretary of State, my office sponsored a public contest to draw districts to show we could and gerrymandering.

We used a formula that served as a basis for developing the state constitution’s formula for fair districts. We proved it could be done. Nothing is more basic to the health of Ohio’s democracy than fair districts, and I want to participate in any review of that process occurring after the 2020 census. I want to use my experience to the benefit of the court and the people of the State of Ohio. Second, there are important issues such as when a police office can make an individual get out of their car, under what circumstances criminal records can be expunged, when someone’s home can be taken through foreclosure or when is it appropriate for legislative caps on damages (such as rape of a child by a trusted pastor) to be overcome. These issues are just a few that affect everyday people in Ohio, though many citizens often don’t realize how much they are affected by just the words of the state’s highest court. Third, I have found that when there is a political balance on an appellate court, there is less a tendency to “group think.” Better decisions are likely to emerge when they involve the give-and-take of views and the softening of others through reasoned and respectful discussion and decision making. Currently, the political balance of the state’s high court is a state of unbalance with 5 Republicans and 2 Democrats. A 4-3 balance would, in my view, create some of the best decisions possible from the court. I hope to help provide that balance with my election.

What about your non-judicial legal experience qualifies you to be a judge?
For more than two decades, I have dedicated my career to public service. Before becoming a judge, I had served as chief legal counsel to the governor, an assistant attorney general, and a state government lawyer. Those years in public service are critical to my understanding of state laws, my adherence to constitutional limitations, and my commitment to careful and efficient decision making on behalf of all Ohioans. I also have legal experience in the private sector, having worked in a law firm and a large manufacturing corporation.
That private experience helps me understand the practical impact of our decisions and appreciate the impact of our judicial rules and procedures. Finally, as the daughter of a schoolteacher, I appreciate my Ohio roots and education, and I am committed to using my voice as a Justice to be a part of civic education in Ohio. I speak frequently to students, educators, and civic organizations. Since taking office, I have traveled to all 88 counties (I am on my fifth time around), and I have met with individuals, organizations, businesses, and local leaders, all in an effort to serve them better. If reelected, I will continue that level and method of service.

Why are you running for this particular court seat?
I first aspired to be a justice because it offers interesting, challenging, and meaningful work that serves the public interest. I aspire to be reelected to the office because I want to continue that work, both on and off the bench. As a justice, I am able not only to bring attention to needs within the legal profession, the judiciary, and the public as a whole, but also to advocate for change to meet those needs. In particular, during my next term, I intend to continue the court’s work to improve our efficiency and that of all Ohio courts. I also intend to continue my work with the Ohio Access to Justice Foundation and local legal aid organizations to bring more attention, resources, and innovation to the needs of undeserved Ohioans.

I’ve also served as a visiting judge on the Supreme Court of Ohio.
What about your nonjudicial legal experience qualifies you to be a judge?
I served as an assistant County prosecutor in the Cuyahoga County Prosecutor’s Office from 1991-1998 where I tried and investigated numerous cases from murder to fraud including a period of service in the “white collar” Economic Crime Unit of that office. I also served as a trial court bailiff in Cuyahoga County Common Pleas Court from 1985-1991 where I managed the civil and criminal docket for Judge Donald C. Nugent while attending law school at night. I also served as a probation officer in Cuyahoga County from 1980 to 1984. I completed the A.S.T.A.R. course, at the Applied Science Technology Adjudication Resource Center, Washington D.C. (2007-2009) A two-year certification program offered through the Supreme Court of Ohio addressing the admission and/or exclusion of scientific evidence in American courts. Training included course study at Johns Hopkins University Medical School in Baltimore, Maryland. I was certified on April 17, 2009. I currently serve on the Ohio Sentencing Commission and previously served as the Chairman of the Commission on Practice and Procedures for Ohio Courts, (Supreme Court of Ohio) in 2008-2009. I’ve been active with the Ohio Judicial Conference: Criminal Law and Procedure Committee since 2001. I’ve served as presenter with the Supreme Court of Ohio Judicial Conference since 1998. I am also active with the Cleveland-Marshall College of Law Alumni Association (Life member) and I previously served as Editor of the former Cuyahoga County Bar Association’s, “Law and Fact” magazine in 2005-2007. I am a past President of the Northern Ohio Municipal Judges Association, 2001-2002.
Why are you running for this particular seat?
I am running for re-election to continue my effort to provide a fair and balanced platform for the resolution of disputes in our community. I come from a humble, simple background. My first job in a courthouse was as a janitor cleaning floors. I was the first person in my family to graduate from college and go to law school. My parents were immigrants who worked to provide me the opportunity for a better life. I’ve worked my way up through the system. I’ve been involved at every level of the court system for more than forty years. I believe in my innate ability to ultimately offer hope and justice to all who appear in court. The best trait I offer is that I remember my humble origins and offer every attorney, litigant and colleague the promise that I will listen to each issue and balance the interests of those litigants within the context of the applicable law, regardless of any personal interests. I am not an activist judge. I try to apply the law to the facts of each case in a manner that is fair and balanced to all involved. I am humbled by the fact that I have been elected as a judge and have been afforded the great opportunity to serve and try to make our justice system better. I don’t take the responsibility lightly. I’ve dedicated myself to not only be a fair and impartial jurist, but also to work with professional entities to try to improve the judicial system. I believe my years of service have made me a better and more thoughtful judge. I’ve sat on a significant number of cases over more than 20 years in the court of appeals. I sincerely believe this experience will serve the court and the legal community in a positive way in my last term.

I have been a Cleveland Municipal Judge for 18 years. I was elected in 2001. I have been the Cleveland Mental Health Specialized Docket judge for 3 years. I have used the power of the court to impact the lives of the people who appear before me and the legal system. I have created numerous programs to help offenders help themselves. As a result of the Get on Track Program I helped create, over 600 people have secured their GED’s. I created the Community Orientation Program (COP) to educate people on their rights and responsibilities when they encounter the police. I also created a curfew program to address both parents’ and children’s responsibilities in the school. I was the Chair of the Rules Committee for over 10 years. As the Chair, I spearheaded many improvements in the court and reviewed and revised rules that helped improve the operations of the court. Concerned with defendants sitting in jail on minor misdemeanor offenses because they failed to appear in court, I spearheaded the creation of a process to allow for the release of defendants once they were processed. As the Mental Health Court Judge, I created innovative measures to focus on the therapeutic progress of each participant who was diagnosed with mental illness. The compliance hearings for the participants in the program was relocated from the justice center and into a community room at a social service site. Education on mental illness and art therapy have been incorporated into the program. These innovative measures have been recognized by both the Alcohol Drug Addiction & Mental Health Services (ADAMHS) Board and National Alliance on Mental Illness (NAMI). I have written over 20 opinions that have been published and used as legal precedence by other judges.
What about your nonjudicial legal experience qualifies you to be a judge?
I am a student and teacher of the law. I have been an adjunct professor at Case Western Reserve School of Law for 3 years. I teach Criminal Procedure II. I must study and stay current in the law. My teaching allows me to challenge law students as they challenge me. I create Continuing Legal Education (CLE) seminars for attorneys. I select thought provoking topics. I have had hundreds of attorneys attend the numerous seminars that I have created and have been approved by the Ohio Supreme Court. The evaluations from the attendees have been extremely favorable and often state the seminars were one of the best they have attended. I have presented at many CLE seminars covering various topics. I prepare my own presentations which requires me to research the subject matters. I volunteer through my church, the bar association and sorority. I have volunteered at the school close to my church for many years. I have an opportunity to see the needs of the students and mentor them in personal responsibility and goal setting. I volunteer on behalf of the bar association at local high schools. Through my sorority I assisted with it’s annual fundraising events. My volunteer work helps me better understand the needs of the community and the people who come before me. I am often asked to speak at church programs. I appreciate the opportunities because they require me to be more knowledgeable about the bible. In my preparation, I must also do serious self-reflections and evaluations of myself to see how I measure up to the personal characteristics and principles that I speak about. Personal qualities like patience, kindness, gentleness and self control. I am convinced in order to be a good judge, you must strive to be a good person and understand the importance of exercising your power responsibly. Finally, I am a wife of 33 years and mother of 2 children who are both graduates of Princeton University. Juggling the needs of a family require many skillsets that are transferable to the court as you make decisions about people’s lives.

Why are you running for this particular seat?
The Court of Appeals is a scholarly court. The appellate court can effectively impact the administration of justice. As a trial court judge, I have had over 20 opinions written and published. These opinions are used as legal precedents by other judges and cited in legal reference books. I recall over 10 years ago, an appellate judge sought me out at a judicial conference of hundreds of judges to let me know she had used one of my opinions in an opinion she had written. She went on to ask me if I had considered becoming an appellate judge. At the time I had not. However, since that time, I have written far more opinions and began to teach at Case Law School. It is a great honor to stand as a professor in the room once sat as a student. I am able to stand there because of the scholarly efforts I have undertaken. I love the law and impact it can have on people’s lives, our community and the administration of justice. I understand the responsibility to uphold the constitution.

What about your nonjudicial legal experience qualifies you to be a judge?
I have been a practicing trial attorney for over 16 years. During that time I have represented adults, children, parents and been an Assistant Cuyahoga County Prosecutor in the Children and Family Services Unit. My areas of practice include appeals, bankruptcy, probate, adult criminal, juvenile delinquency, private custody, and children’s services cases. As a trial attorney, I have learned the skills required to prepare a case for trial and identify potential issues for appeal. I have prepared over a dozen appellate briefs and argued those cases before the 8th and 9th District Courts of Appeals. Practicing appellate law provides the opportunity to carefully analyze the law and the actions of the various parties involved in a case. Writing an appellate brief has given me the opportunity to fine tune my legal analysis skills and identify errors that resulted in a potential miscarriage of justice. I bring a wealth of experience and knowledge that will benefit the Court and people of Cuyahoga County. I believe that my experience will bring added depth to the Court.

Why are you running for this particular seat?
The 8th District Court of Appeals is one of the busiest appellate courts in the state of Ohio. My knowledge and experience will not only add depth to the court but significant experience working with disenchanted and low-income people who have difficulty access the court system and obtaining justice. My practice has given me the perspective of plaintiff, defendant, and prosecutor. I believe that running for the 8th District Court of Appeals is the next logical step. It is a court that I practice in and am familiar with how the court operates. At this time, I believe that this is the best way for me to continue to serve the people of Cuyahoga County.

What about your nonjudicial legal experience qualifies you to be a judge?
Working as a financial systems analyst allowed me to understand government financial systems since being a judge you must work with budgets. Additionally, I worked as an assistant city prosecutor and deputy director in the criminal division of the clerk of courts. These positions uniquely qualified me for the position as I gained inside knowledge of the court’s operations and procedures. As a prosecutor, I perfected my legal skills and then after leaving the prosecutor’s office, I worked as a defense attorney. I was able to work on both sides as well as learn the administrative process. All of these skills qualifies me to be a judge.

Why are you running for this particular seat?
I am running to retain my seat as appellate court judge of the 8th district.

The Eighth District Court of Appeals is the last stop for justice in Cuyahoga County. So, it is important that the judges who serve on the court have experience in the courts and in the community to provide the foundation to make tough decisions in a way that is legally sound, fair and just. For my entire career I have been a courtroom lawyer, representing my clients in trial courts and courts of appeals. My experience and expertise with complicated legal issues like those that the Eighth District Court of Appeals addresses mean that I will be able to get the job done from Day 1. My intimate knowledge and understanding of how the courts work and of substantive law will provide me with the foundation necessary to make legally correct decisions. For example, I argued my first appeal in the 1990s and most recently argued an appeal last year. I have represented clients in the Court of Appeals throughout the years in between. Further, my years of experience writing briefs submitted to courts at different levels coupled with my years of experience drafting articles for publication in legal journals will enable me to write decisions that are clear and that provide guidance to the parties at bar, as well as to the public in general. But, understanding the courts and the law is only part of the equation. My demonstrated commitment to the community gives me a broad perspective that will help me make decisions that are fair and just. I have served as a volunteer on the board at the Centers for Families and Children for the last 11 years, doing my part to ensure that high quality Head Start, job training and healthcare (both physical and mental) are available to tens of thousands of the most vulnerable members of our community. In addition, for roughly the past 20 years I have volunteered election after election to ensure that everyone who is registered can cast a ballot and have it count. I do that because the health and strength of our democracy depends on people being able to exercise their right to vote. I offer my legal experience and my proven commitment to the community as I seek to serve as a judge on the Court of Appeals. Why are you running for this particular seat? I seek to serve on the Court of Appeals in Cuyahoga County because I see the the greatest issue facing the court today as the deterioration of respect for the institution. If people do not trust and have confidence in the courts to dispense justice and to apply the law fairly, we risk a breakdown of orderly democratic society. In recent years, there has been an increase in criticism of judges and questioning of political motivations behind judicial decisions, all of which degrades respect for individual judges and the courts in general. An antidote to this problem is electing judges who are highly qualified, beyond influence and committed to service. I am that candidate. If elected, I will dedicate myself to writing opinions that address key legal issues efficiently and that offer a window into the analysis that led to a particular outcome, to resolve the matters before the Court and toward the goal of providing guidance to future litigants. Of course, fair and just application of the law would guide every decision. If elected to the Court of Appeals, I will work to continue to be actively involved in the community as well as philanthropic organizations. The purpose behind this community involvement would be to increase public exposure to, and thus confidence in, the courts and judges. I have always been drawn to public service. I have had a wonderful career as a private practice litigator for the past 27 years. But, the notion of giving back to the law and to the community has always been important to me. Sitting on the Court of Appeals is compelling as it allows me to achieve those goals in a meaningful way. I have seen how important it is – how it can change lives – when the courts apply the law fairly and evenhandedly. I aspire to be a judge because I believe that my work ethic, dedication to and love of the law, and demonstrated commitment to our community is the right mix of professional and community experience to allow me to apply and interpret the law fairly and justly.

I have been Judge of the 8th District Court of Appeals since 1/3/2020. Since becoming an appeals court judge, I have an excellent 100% decision record. I have participated in over 220 judicial decisions with none overturned by the Ohio Supreme Court on appeal.

What about your nonjudicial legal experience qualifies you to be a judge?
I have been a practicing lawyer for over 32 years. I believe my diversity of experience in very sophisticated finance and community development projects for cities and counties as bond counsel which has helped cities and counties to pay bills, provide community services to residents and create jobs has already enabled me to add very tangible value as judge on the 8th District Court of Appeals bench. Go to my webpage for the very important work that I am doing as a judge on fair sentencing and equal justice. This is something Ohio judges have worked on to enact for over 25 years. As a result of my efforts which have been recognized by bar associations throughout Ohio and by associate justices and the Chief Justice of the Ohio Supreme Court, Ohio judges are now on the verge of finally being able to join the 21st century in the use of data to ensure fair sentencing and equal justice in our courts. My experience as a business, finance and community development lawyer rather than being a trial lawyer has enabled me to be a judge who brings a different perspective to the complexities of our justice system. These perspectives are unique to me and different from any judge currently sitting as well as any candidate for any judicial bench in Cuyahoga County.

Why are you running for this particular seat? Quite simply, I want to finish doing the job I started. By measure of none of my opinions being reversed (as being incorrect) by the Ohio Supreme Court, I am doing excellent work as a judge. Indeed, I could not have a more perfect record as a judge with respect to rendering judicial opinions which is the job of an appeals court judge. My opponent does not have judicial experience and does not possess this track record. But having a perfect judicial opinion record as a judge is not enough in my opinion. Judges need to do more to build confidence and trust in our judicial system. With my work on the establishment of a statewide criminal sentencing database, I have already started a movement that has brought communities together over the common sense need to give judges and the public information (data) that everyone thinks that we as judges were already collecting – but are not!!! In addition to a perfect opinion record as a judge, it is these common sense ideas and approaches to justice that I want to leave as my legacy as a judge. I recognize that I sit on the shoulders of many who came before me. I have been blessed to be a judge. I want to continue to add value to Ohioans, to our justice system and to my colleagues on the bench. For example, during my next term I also want to look into appellate standards of review for child custody appeals and plea bargains. My job is simply not finished.

I am running for Judge to continue my history of public service and to make a greater impact on our community. Throughout my legal career, I have tried to make an impact within our community so that our fellow citizens can feel the justice system works for their neighborhoods, families, and themselves. As I spend time litigating in court, I have recognized a need for highly competent judges that will work to make sure our community and its citizens receive ethical and fair treatment. I hope to bring to the court a sense of fairness and empathy, treating all who come before me with respect. I will diligently work to ensure matters are resolved in a timely fashion valuing punctuality and deadlines.

I believe the position should be reserved for people that have practiced in the courtroom for several years. I have tried and litigated hundreds of cases and managed hundreds of lawyers. I understand the law and procedures of the courtroom and can help lawyer’s resolve conflicts and ensure defendants’ rights are protected. Secondly, I believe the law and procedures of the courtroom and do so with the least expense of resources. The statute also says sentences should be consistent with each other. Sentences should be proportional and consistent. I believe a sentencing database will have an impact on the levels of incarcerated defendants by limiting sentences that are disproportionate. I will keep a transparent record of my sentencings and encourage the practice. I believe that a research partner to assist with the development of a data system that has the scope to track sentences by charge, victim and defendant information and fact patterns.

Why are you running for this particular seat?
I was appointed to this seat by Governor Kasich in January of 2019. In my first year on the bench I had more incoming cases than almost every other Judge in this court. My docket had 451 incoming cases compared to an average of around 371. I also resolved more cases in my first year than any of the other new judges who took the bench in 2019. In a short time period, I have established a reputation for having an unflappable judicial temperament. I actively practice the four pillars of procedural justice in my courtroom daily by being compassionate, fair, impartial, transparent, and allowing parties to have a voice. I received two commendations from jurors/potential jurors this past year recognizing the way I handle my courtroom. In addition to the probation committee, I also serve on the criminal rules committee in our court. I am currently working on a proposal to streamline the process of fee bill submission and electronic payments for appointed counsel. I completed judicial training while still actively engaging in our community. I conducted court in the classroom at Heritage Middle School and volunteered as a mock trial Judge in both 2019 and 2020 for Highschool Mock trial teams. I also helped Cleveland Marshall College of Law prepare their moot court team for Regional Competition (they won first place!). I am also working in banking for almost twenty years. I attended law school in the evenings while working full time and raising my children. As an attorney, I was a dedicated Guardian ad Litem for children who have been separated from their parents or are at risk of separation due to abuse neglect or dependency. I also represented the best interests of children in custody matters.

I have been a Probate Court judge since February, 2009. I was a magistrate for the Medina County Probate/Juvenile Court for seven years.

What about your nonjudicial legal experience qualifies you to be a judge?
Prior to being elected to the bench I was an assistant county prosecutor in Cuyahoga County for a total of nine years, an assistant county prosecutor in Medina County for six years and a Juvenile/Probate Court magistrate for seven years. I have over thirty-two years of public service in many areas of the law with a focus on family law issues.

Why are you running for this particular seat?
I am the incumbent judge for this seat. For the past eleven years I have worked hard to serve the attorneys and clients who have come before the probate court. During my tenure the court has made great strides in the use of technology, including an online docket and e-file capability. We have also initiated an out-patient mental illness docket, a legal resource center for self represented clients and a guardian visitor program. I have a passion for probate jurisdiction including adoptions, guardianships, mental illness, trusts and estates. I am active in the Ohio Probate Judge Association and am a frequent presenter at Judicial conferences. In the past year I succeeded in having my courtroom renovated to improve accessibility, including the availability of equipment to assist those with hearing impairment.

Issue 67
Chagrin Falls Exempted Village School District Tax Levy (additional, current expenses)

BALLOT LANGUAGE: An additional tax for the benefit of the Chagrin Falls Exempted Village School District for the purpose of current expenses at a rate not exceeding 3.85 mills for each one dollar of valuation, which amounts to 38.5 cents for each one hundred dollars of valuation, for a continuing period of time, commencing in 2020, first due in calendar year 2021.

EXPLANATION: Beginning in December 2020, the bonds issued for the construction of Chagrin Falls Middle School will mature, so taxpayers will no longer be responsible for the cost of the bond issue, a cost equal to the 3.85 mills that would be added to property tax bills if this levy passes. The net result is that taxpayers will see no tax increase, but the school district will receive an additional $2.2 million annually. A YES vote supports the levy. A NO vote opposes the levy.

Pro and Con arguments for and against the measure

Yes - For the Measure

This is not a tax increase. But it will bring in an additional $2.2 million annually to support education in the district.

No - Against the Measure

* If this issue fails, taxpayers in the district would see a 3.85-mill tax decrease. * This is a continuing (permanent) levy, not a limited (renewal) levy that must be voted on regularly. * There is no certainty that this levy, even if passed, will provide sufficient funds to support the schools for more than a few years.

Issue 68
Cleveland Municipal School District Tax Levy (renewal and increase, current expenses of district and partnering community schools)

BALLOT LANGUAGE: A renewal of 15 mills and an increase of 5 mills to constitute a tax for the benefit of the Cleveland Municipal School District (CMSD) for the purpose of current expenses of the school district and of partnering community schools at a rate not exceeding 20 mills for each one dollar of valuation (of which 1.5 mills is to be allocated to partnering community schools), which amounts to $2 for each one hundred dollars of valuation, for ten years, commencing in 2020, first due in calendar year 2021.

EXPLANATION: This is a renewal of a 15-mill levy expiring at the end of this year AND a 5-mill additional levy. This is ONE issue on your ballot. The resulting 20-mill levy will expire in 10 years. The 15-mill renewal does not raise taxes; it continues to cost $525 per year for every $100,000 of property valuation. The additional 5 mills will result in an increase of $175 per year for a home valued at $100,000. So the total annual tax for every $100,000 of property valuation would be $700. A YES vote supports the levy. A NO vote opposes the levy.

Pro and Con arguments for and against the measure

Yes - For the Measure

* Will help CMSD continue progress under the “Cleveland Plan” and pay for needs caused by the COVID-19 pandemic. * Without approval, the current levy will expire on Dec. 31, 2020, and the school district could lose $67 million in funding, forcing it to cut staff and programs that provide critical services for its students. * The current levy raises about $87 million per year; if the renewal and increase pass, the district will raise $96.1 million per year for the next 10 years.

No - Against the Measure

* This is a levy that will continue for 10 years rather than a shorter time period, preventing voters from assessing on a more frequent basis how the CMSD uses the funds. * A portion of levy funds will go to Cleveland charter schools (“partnering community schools”)—siphoning funds from students in traditional public schools.

Issue 69
Cleveland Heights/University Heights City School District Tax Levy (additional)

BALLOT LANGUAGE: An additional tax for the benefit of the Cleveland Heights-University Heights City School District for the purpose of current expenses at a rate not exceeding 4.8 mills for each one dollar of valuation, which amounts to 48 cents for each one hundred dollars of valuation, for a continuing period of time, commencing in 2020, first due in calendar year 2021.

(This school district comprises most of Cleveland Heights, all of University Heights, and part of South Euclid.)

EXPLANATION: After the district’s larger levy request failed in the spring, school district officials opted to ask voters to approve a smaller levy. The county fiscal officer has estimated that this proposed levy, if passed, would generate an additional $5,308,890 in annual property tax revenues to help cover the current expenses of the school district. The cost of the additional tax to the owner of a house with a market value of $100,000 would be an additional $168 per year. A YES vote approves the levy. A NO vote opposes the levy.

Pro and Con arguments for and against the measure

Yes - For the Measure

The following statements are those of “Tiger Nation for Strong Schools,” a committee that supports the tax levy; the statements have been edited only slightly for length by The League of Women Voters: * We stand for adequate and fair funding of public education as a common need. The method of funding public education in Ohio is broken. House Bill 520, which requires districts to seek approval of tax levies every few years, has been deemed unconstitutional by the Ohio Supreme Court four times. And yet, no one has fixed it. It remains school districts’ only option for keeping up with inflation. Last spring, CH-UH waited for the General Assembly to fix the EdChoice policy that forces the district to pay out more than 30% of its state funding for private school vouchers. But the state abandoned us yet again. This year, CH-UH will lose $9.3 million to EdChoice vouchers for more than 1,800 children. Fewer than 10% of these children were enrolled in CH-UH schools before seeking a voucher. * We stand for fiscal responsibility. The board and administration of the CH-UH schools take their role as stewards of the public dollar very seriously. Out of respect for the community’s homeowners in this difficult time, they opted for the smallest millage of any levy in more than 30 years. The district’s books are audited by the state every year and are always found to be above board. They have made nearly $6 million in cuts over the past five years and any further cuts would cause lasting harm to our district’s students and teachers. * We stand for public dollars going to public education. Our district does a careful job managing the costs that are within its control. Unfortunately, the state continues to add unfunded mandates, from EdChoice to the creation and oversight of IEPs for students who do not attend CH-UH schools to busing private school students. The district has no way to reduce these costs. * We stand for academic excellence. CH-UH Schools are thriving. From kindergartners learning Spanish and Chinese to high schoolers earning Advanced Placement honors to individualized special education instruction, our district has so much to offer. Award-winning arts and music programming, STEM and IB schools, 23 career tech pathways, 22 AP courses, countless sports and extra-curricular options would all be threatened without passage of this levy. * We stand for equity and racial justice. As the first district in the state with an Equity Policy to prevent the district from using funds to support inequity, it is a guiding principle for all our policies. * We stand for our children when no one else will. We are a community that believes in the promise of public education. Our schools provide the opportunities that kids need and deserve to learn, thrive, explore and grow. And to do it while being nurtured and supported as whole human beings with a wide range of needs. If this levy fails, and the district is forced to close school buildings, lay off teachers and increase class sizes, reduce course offerings and extra-curricular opportunities, we will have done a disservice to our community’s children, their futures and the health of EdChoice, the CHUH District has serious financial management problems due to its spending practices. Issue 69 is not a referendum on EdChoice. * EdChoice should be addressed through advocacy with the EPA consent order is estimated at a staggering $620 million.  EdChoice is Not on the ballot. this year due to the pandemic. * The cost of bringing Cleveland Heights' sewer system into compliance has been let go due to the pandemic. * Cleveland Heights currently projects a $1 million funding shortfall for this levy so that the institutions upon which they rely will remain strong. * For more information, visit us at www.chuyes.com.

No - Against the Measure

The following statements are those of “Tiger Nation 4 Lower Taxes,” a committee that opposes the tax levy; the statements have been edited only slightly for length by The League of Women Voters: TigerNation4LowerTaxes is 100% funded and supported by a cross-section of CHUH residents of different races, religions, income levels, and political affiliations. We are not sponsored or influenced by special interest groups. We are united only in our desire for transparency, accountability and sound financial management from the CHUH school district and elected representatives on the school board. CHUH schools are generously funded. * According to the State CUPP report for FY2019, CHUH Schools have the fourth highest expenditure-out of Ohio's 688 school districts (CHUH is within the top 1%). * CHUH Schools receive $22,700 per student in revenue. Similar districts receive $16,500 and the state average is $15,000. * Our community’s tax effort already exceeds the state average by about 45%. Unsustainable spending practices do not benefit students. * Taxpayers cover 94% of CHUH employees’ exceptionally generous healthcare costs. CHUH employees only contribute 6% compared to Shaker Heights School employees who contribute 13%. CHUH employees have a ZERO deductible plan. CHUH Schools could save approximately $7 million annually and avoid this levy just by bringing healthcare costs in line with Shaker Heights. * The district's August 2020 Five Year Forecast shows a $55.2 million deficit at the end of fiscal year 2025. This is NOT sustainable. * The CHUH school board has not acted to consider saving money. Over 1,600 residents have signed a petition calling on the school board to act. The board’s stated rationale for not moving forward with a Performance Audit has been directly contradicted by the State Auditor. The last Performance Audit was conducted in 1999 and identified $6 million+ worth of potential annual savings. * The district mismanaged the facilities renovation project. They overspent by millions on the High School and Wiley renovations and shortchanged the middle schools. * The State Auditor found that the CHUH District illegally spent taxpayer funds to influence and support the April 2020 levy campaign. * The district has sold unused real estate assets to other public entities for $1 to $10 each. Our community is already struggling. We should not increase the already heavy financial burden placed on our most vulnerable residents. * As of June 2020, unemployment in Cleveland Heights is close to 14%. * 100+ full- and part-time Cleveland Heights city employees have been let go due to the pandemic. * Cleveland Heights currently projects a $1 million funding shortfall this year due to the pandemic. * The cost of bringing Cleveland Heights’ sewer system into compliance with the EPA consent order is estimated at a staggering $620 million. EdChoice is Not on the ballot. Issue 69 is not a referendum on EdChoice. * EdChoice should be addressed through advocacy with the State Legislature. * EdChoice vouchers are funded by the State, not local property taxes. * The district is inflating the impact of EdChoice by including vouchers used to support children who attend other public schools and special needs students who need services the district cannot provide. * Even without EdChoice, the CHUH District has serious financial management problems due to its spending practices. SCHOOL LEVIES IN THE COUNTY AND THE COUNTY DISTRICT LIBRARY LEVY

Issue 71
Euclid City School District Tax Levy (additional, emergency requirements)

BALLOT LANGUAGE: Shall a levy be imposed by the Euclid City School District for the purpose of providing for the emergency requirements of the School District in the sum of $5,600,000 and a levy of taxes to be made outside of the ten-mill limitation estimated by the County Fiscal Officer to average 8.7 mills for each one dollar of valuation, which amounts to 87 cents for each one hundred dollars of valuation, for a period of ten years, commencing in 2020, first due in calendar year 2021? EXPLANATION: This levy was originally a renewal levy on the November 2016 ballot. It would have raised taxes at the time, but once the millsage was removed from the tax rolls, the district lost $5.6 million per year—and this levy became an “emergency” measure on ballots last fall and spring. It failed both times. If it fails again this time, continued drastic cuts will have to be made to the district’s budget. If it passes, property owners would pay an additional $304.50 annually for every $100,000 of property valuation. A YES vote supports the levy. A NO vote opposes the levy.

Pro and Con arguments for and against the measure
Yes - For the Measure
This levy is asking for $5.6 million in funding to meet the emergency needs of the district’s students. The previous failed levies resulted in significant cuts, including reductions in teachers and staff and reduced transportation for grades 1-8. If the levy fails again, the district will face even more cuts to the education and services it gives Euclid’s students. But it will last only 10 years before voters could see it on the ballot again.

No - Against the Measure
This levy would raise taxes enough to fund the district at the level it had reached before a renewal levy failed in 2018. So property owners would see an increase in annual taxes of $304.50 for every $100,000 of valuation for a period of 10 years.

Issue 72
Fairview Park City School District Tax Levy (additional, current expenses)

BALLOT LANGUAGE: An additional tax for the benefit of the Fairview Park City School District for the purpose of current expenses at a rate not exceeding 7.9 mills for each one dollar of valuation, which amounts to 79 cents for each one hundred dollars of valuation, for a continuing period of time, commencing in 2020, first due in calendar year 2021.

EXPLANATION: Fairview Park property owners will see an increase of $23.04 per month ($276.50 per year) for every $100,000 of home valuation. The district has not requested new operating dollars for 14 years—the last operating/levy requested and approved by voters was in 2006. The bond issue/permanent improvement levy in 2016 was dedicated to the recently completed district facilities project, and the operating renewal in 2018, which maintained prior levels of funding, did not increase revenue for the district and did not increase taxes. A YES vote supports the levy. A NO vote opposes the levy.

Pro and Con arguments for and against the measure
Yes - For the Measure
* The district’s budget has been stretched as far as possible. In the past year alone, nearly $1 million dollars in operating costs have been cut to offset recent shortfalls and keep this request to taxpayers as low as possible. * This levy will generate $3.2 million per year in operating revenue, and will allow the district to: Continue athletics and student activities, avoid double-digit reductions of teachers and support staff, maintain smaller class sizes, avoid bus cuts, sustain academic improvements, and keep technology up to date.

No - Against the Measure
The levy will increase property taxes by $276.50 per year for every $100,000 of property valuation.

Issue 73
Parma City School District Bond Issue and Permanent Improvement Tax Levy (capital expenses)

BALLOT LANGUAGE: Shall the Parma City School District be authorized to do the following:

(1) Issue bonds for the purpose of constructing, furnishing and equipping new school buildings and facilities for grades 6-12 on two campuses and otherwise constructing, renovating, remodeling, adding to, furnishing, equipping and improving school district buildings and facilities, including improvements to the existing Parma Senior High School, and clearing, improving and equipping their sites in the principal amount of $271,000,000, to be repaid annually over a maximum period of 37 years, and levy a property tax outside the ten-mill limitation, estimated by the County Fiscal Officer to average over the bond repayment period 6.1 mills for each one dollar of tax valuation, which amounts to 61 cents for each one hundred dollars of tax valuation, to pay the annual debt charges on the bonds, and to pay debt charges on any notes issued in anticipation of those bonds?
(2) Levy an additional property tax to provide funds for the acquisition, construction, enlargement, renovation, and financing of general permanent improvements at a rate not exceeding 0.4 mill for each one dollar of tax valuation, which amounts to 4 cents for each one hundred dollars of tax valuation, for a continuing period of time?

EXPLANATION: This is ONE ballot issue that comprises both a bond issue and a permanent improvement levy. The bonds will pay for construction of two new schools for grades 6-12 on the current sites of Normandy and Valley Forge high schools. The new schools will have STEM labs and will be built in partnership with Cuyahoga Community College. Parma High School, in partnership with University Hospitals, will be renovated and converted into a Community Educational and Wellness Center. The State of Ohio, through the Ohio Facilities Construction Commission, will contribute $69 million towards the cost of these projects. The bond issue and related levy combined will increase taxes by $227.50 annually for the owner of a home valued at $100,000. A YES vote approves the bond issue and permanent improvement levy. A NO vote opposes the bond issue and permanent improvement levy.

Pro and Con arguments for and against the measure
Yes - For the Measure
* The newest operating school in Parma opened in 1968. The new schools that would be built with these funds will have newer technology and resources for students. * Includes converting Parma Senior High School into a community center. * The State of Ohio will contribute $69 million toward these capital investments.

No - Against the Measure
The district is seeking a significant increase in property taxes during an economic crisis. And the money would go toward constructing new school buildings, not maintaining current services.

POLS OPEN ON ELECTION DAY 6:30AM TO 7:30PM.
SCHOOL LEVIES IN THE COUNTY AND THE COUNTY DISTRICT LIBRARY LEVY

Issue 74
Richmond Heights Local School District Permanent Improvement Tax Levy (renewal, capital expenses)

BALLOT LANGUAGE: A renewal of a tax for the benefit of the Richmond Heights Local School District for the purpose of general permanent improvements at a rate not exceeding 2 mills for each one dollar of valuation, which amounts to 20 cents for each one hundred dollars of valuation, for five years, commencing in 2020, first due in calendar year 2021.

EXPLANATION: This is a five-year renewal of a 2-mill permanent-improvement levy to help care for the district’s school buildings. A YES vote supports the levy renewal. A NO vote opposes the levy renewal.

Pro and Con arguments for and against the measure

Yes - For the Measure:
This is a low-millage levy renewal with a five-year termination.

No - Against the Measure:
Failure of this levy would result in a lower property tax rate for district homeowners dealing with an economic crisis.

Issue 75
Richmond Heights Local School District Tax Levy (additional, current expenses)

BALLOT LANGUAGE: An additional tax for the benefit of the Richmond Heights Local School District for the purpose of current expenses at a rate not exceeding 5.9 mills for each one dollar of valuation, which amounts to 59 cents for each one hundred dollars of valuation, for a continuing period of time, commencing in 2020, first due in calendar year 2021.

EXPLANATION: The school district has been working to require that a $3 million lump-sum payment in payroll taxes be part of any deal the city makes with DeaPoint Merrill, a California developer that has proposed a $250 million redevelopment of Richmond Town Square. That hasn’t happened, so the district has placed this additional operating levy on the ballot. It would raise $1 million annually and would increase property taxes $206 per year for every $100,000 of home value. A YES vote approves the levy. A NO vote opposes the levy.

Pro and Con arguments for and against the measure

Yes - For the Measure
This levy will not increase taxes and is limited in time to five years. And the district has improved its graduation rate by 20 percent over the past five years.

No - Against the Measure
The levy raises property taxes during an economic crisis, and it has no expiration date.

Issue 76
Warrensville Heights City School District Tax Levy (renewal, emergency requirements)

BALLOT LANGUAGE: Shall a levy renewing an existing levy be imposed by the Warrensville Heights City School District for the purpose of providing for the emergency requirements of the school district in the sum of $1,850,000 and a levy of taxes to be made outside of the ten-mill limitation estimated by the county fiscal officer to average 5.1 mills for each one dollar of valuation, which amounts to 51 cents for each one hundred dollars of valuation, for a period of five years, commencing in 2020, first due in calendar year 2021?

EXPLANATION: This is a five-year renewal of an existing levy that provides funding for the school district to maintain current services. It does not increase taxes. A YES vote approves the levy renewal. A NO vote opposes the levy renewal.

Pro and Con arguments for and against the measure

Yes - For the Measure
This levy will not increase taxes and is limited in time to five years. And the district has improved its graduation rate by 20 percent over the past five years.

No - Against the Measure
This levy does not increase taxes, but its failure would decrease taxes during an economic crisis.

Vote-by-Mail ballots can be delivered to Board of Elections office until 7:30pm

Vote-by-Mail ballots must be postmarked by Monday, November 2
What's different about the LWV's Greater Cleveland Voter Guide?

Election information can often be biased and overwhelming, which is why the League of Women Voters of Greater Cleveland produced a printed nonpartisan election guide that will make it easy for you to compare candidates and research their positions on policy issues.

We want to make voting as straightforward as possible for you, because your vote matters. Voting helps you make your life better and your community stronger by choosing elected officials who will represent your interests, values, and beliefs. Your vote is your voice, and we want to help you to use it.

For over 100 years, the League has been a powerful, grassroots organization that works to educate voters and make government more accountable to the people.

The legacy of the League of Women Voters is bold.

The League of Women Voters of Greater Cleveland provides nonpartisan information on elections and voting. Our goal is to offer the complete list of all contests on your ballot, including state and local offices and propositions. This service is free to voters and free to candidates. It is sponsored by grants and donations and managed by a team of volunteers of the League of Women Voters members.

Empower voters. Donate today
